- Average number of clients per day in caseload.

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Please ensure that the duties and responsibilities are specific to your role and not taken from a generic job description. (A maximum of six duties).

You must also include the following information:

- Describe your caseload and provide examples of reasons for clients presenting and/or reason why they are referred.
- Assessment and interventions used.
- Knowledge and application of relevant Philippine laws and how these relate to Irish legislation governing TUSLA's work.
- List specific functions you have performed/are performing.
- List 3 social work skills which you have acquired.
- Confirmation if you make independent client centred decisions.
- It is essential that you place on your resume actual examples of TUSLA-related cases which you are personally managing "hands on", or have recently personally managed "hands on", together with indicating, on your resume, the precise Philippine law/Government decree governing your management of such cases.

From the date of graduation, any employment experiences not related to the role of a Social Worker must also be placed chronologically on your resume and not in the "Gaps in Employment "section.

Add further employers as required using the above format.

(Important note: As will be explained later in the application process, during a potential interview with TUSLA, you will be expected to have a basic understanding of relevant Irish legislation, underpinning the role of a TUSLA Social Worker).

GAPS IN EMPLOYMENT:

Please give specific reasons for any gaps in employment, as well as the precise time periods involved.
