

IRELAND'S CHILD AND FAMILY AGENCY ('TUSLA') - RECRUITMENT OF SOCIAL WORKERS

Cpl Healthcare and Chesham are pleased to announce that Ireland's Child and Family Agency (TUSLA) is recruiting Social Workers for a range of services spread throughout Ireland, including Child Protection and Welfare; Duty and Intake (Initial Assessment); Alternative Care (Foster, Residential, etc.); Family Support and Domestic, Sexual & Gender based violence

These positions are approved for recruitment by the Department of Migrant Workers and are open for immediate applications

MANDATORY APPLICATION REQUIREMENTS:

- Must be a graduate from a four-year Bachelor of Science in Social Work program from a well-established, recognized University.
- Must possess a Professional Regulations Commission license to practice as a Social Worker.
- Must already possess CORU recognition, at a minimum and ideally, already be CORU registered.
- Must be currently working and have continuously worked as a Social Worker for the past two years. Candidates out of relevant professional practice for more than two years will not be considered.
- Must have had recent comprehensive ‘hands-on’ experience in at least one of the TUSLA service areas listed above. Social workers in a hospital setting, or those currently in an administrative/financial support role and similar, having not recently fully managed, “hands on”, all aspects of a comprehensive caseload in one of the TUSLA service areas listed above, will not be considered for this position.
- Excellent interviewing skills in English and report writing skills in English are essential for this position and from the very first interaction with Chesham, applicants will need to demonstrate a very high standard of English proficiency.
- Post qualification experience must involve working in a Social Worker-led service and working as part of a team of Social Workers.
- Experience working with other multi-disciplinary team members, including Psychologists, Occupational Therapists and Speech and Language Therapists is desirable.

- Experience working with other agencies (including law-enforcement, judiciary, governmental organizations, as well as NGO's) is essential.
- Experience preparing and presenting court reports is highly desirable.
- No candidate will be deployed to Ireland without CORU registration.
- There is no requirement outside of the CORU registration process regarding the possession of IELTS. Therefore, should CORU grant you an exemption from IELTS, for example based on a letter of justification from your university, there will be no further need to take this test.
- A requirement of CORU registration is that applicants for registration must have completed a minimum of 1,000 hours in practice placements, 350 hours of which must have been in one block and full-time. A varied range of appropriate placements must have been undertaken. The clinical placement hours will need to be signed off by a licensed Social Worker. If you cannot verify such placement practice experience, your application cannot be considered.
- Must have the ability to undertake assessments of clients independently.
- Must have the ability to make evidence-based interventions independently.
- Must have the ability to collect and report on data.
- Must be capable of working independently (most TUSLA Social Worker roles will be in the community, after completing an induction period).
- The possession of a Philippine car driver's license will be a distinct advantage.

ON OFFER:

- TUSLA is offering contracts of a minimum of 2 years with the opportunity for permanency up to retirement age.
- A basic annual salary of €50,621 - €73,080 depending on experience.
- A very generous relocation package to the value of €4,710 for flights and accommodation allowance.
- Reimbursement of DMW processing costs to $169 for deployed candidates.
- Reimbursement of CORU recognition and registration costs for deployed candidates.
- Critical Skills Employment Permit ('CSEP') cost of €1,000 paid by TUSLA.
- Induction and orientation program on arrival.
- 29 days annual leave and 10 days public holidays per year.
- Excellent supervision and a focus on developing social work strengths, as well as continuous training and development sessions with a dedicated and individualized training plan.
